

We chose this show because it is a classic story and has the opportunity to feature many strong female roles! There are also great male roles and other featured roles. It is a smaller-ensemble show, but we are finding ways to involve them as much as the story allows. This beautiful show will be a great complement to the Spring Musical which features various ensembles throughout most of the show numbers!

LITTLE WOMEN CHARACTER OUTLINE

Marmee March: Female. The mother of the story. She is the strong backbone of the family, who is courageous in spite of the difficult odds she faces.

March Sisters:

-Meg: Female. The world-weary, yet hopeful, oldest sister who yearns for a great life.

-Jo: Female. Our story's protagonist. Passionate, adventurous, and brave.

-Beth: Female. Peace-maker, lover, and an optimist who is always encouraging her sisters to dream.

-Amy: Female. The youngest, most energetic sister with a rather pompous air about her.

Aunt March: Female. A formidable, over-bearing matron and great-aunt to the March sisters. The wealthy socialite in town.

Professor Bhaer: Male. German Professor who exemplifies proper manners.

Laurie Laurence: Male. The bright-eyed boy-next-door with considerable charm.

Mr. Laurence: Male. The March Family's neighbor.

Mr. John Brooke: Male. Laurie's tutor and a rather stiff man; shows very little emotion. He later changes.

Mrs. Kirk: Female. Runs a boarding house in NY.
